We believe that design drawings and documents are not just nice and well presented papers or drawing sheets, but mainly a tool to achieve functional buildings and spaces which reflect a concept and an idea. This is the main criteria on which our designs are based on.