When you◆ve got such lofty goals you need people with big imaginations, big ambitions, vast experience and great determination to make new ideas apply. At the heart of our strategy is the determination to retain and develop the best design team, bar none. We achieve this by creating a stimulating and fulfilling work environment guided by a philosophy of empowerment and encouragement of individuality and initiative. Coupling this with attractive remuneration and incentive packages, which align the interests of our employees with our shareholders and clients, we have assembled a world-class creative team from around the world. This team provides a wealth of experience not only in the typical Architectural and interior design core competencies, but also in presentation, time scheduling and client satisfaction services.
