True Egyptian young creative Interior Designer graduated from faculty of Fine Arts in 1994 after being raised in the French community of Sacr&#65533;C&#65533;ur as heigh school education. Being employed as a junior designer in a couple of Architecture and Interior Design houses, she achieved being the senior designer and technical assistant of Arch. consultant Ibrahim Nagui and associates for more than six fruitful years where she innovated terrific interior designs for hotels and touristic hospitality projects inside and outside Egypt. When it was about time for independency, she established SRDesign the design house for Architecture & Interior Design in 2000 with her close partner Ramsis W. Hanna where they generated together a bulk of remarkable designs for projects in various fields related to Interior Design, Architecture & Planning. Beside being a professional Interior Designer, Samah admires the art of classical music, painting and she used to attend professional classes for opera singing with famous leaders at Cairo Opera House.