• Egyptian Architect born in Cairo in 1967.
• BSc in Architecture from Cairo University Faculty of Engineering in 1990. • Worked as a junior architect in a couple of design houses after graduation and as a trainee during collage. • Involved in some major field construction sites such as the greater Cairo Metro Line 2 with the French Company SBE. • Engaged as a senior architect with Orascom Hotels & Development Company for more than ten years in the field of master planning, urban design, and architecture for hotels and hospitality buildings and their services in El-Gouna, Taba and other destinations outside Egypt. • Established the design house of SRDesign in Cairo with his Interior Design partner Samah L. Tadros in 2000 through which he managed to handle projects under his title in various design fields (Architecture, Interior, Landscape, Master planning, Urban design... etc.) as well as preparing the required tender documents and shop drawings for our in-house designs. • Approved as an Architecture Consultant from the General Syndicate of Engineers in 2012 as per his history of designed projects and achieved certificates. • Interests including playing music (violin & piano), opera singing, painting and more others.